

BRUCE CRAN

Bruce Cran is the President of The Consumer's Association of Canada, a Non Profit Organization dedicated to advancing consumer protection. He was recently elected to his fourth term as National President and has previously served the CAC in many capacities.

Bruce is a native of Australia and was educated at The Scott's College, Gatton Agricultural College and The University of Queensland. He emigrated to Canada in 1962 bringing with him a sustained interest in Consumer Protection. Upon his retirement from a career in international trade in 1987 he has devoted himself to the Consumer cause in Canada.

A lifelong Rotarian, Bruce has acted as Club President on several occasions and is a Paul Harris Fellow. He resides in Delta, British Columbia not far from his five children and fourteen grand children