

PETER D. MADDAUGH, Q.C.

Born in Toronto and raised in St. Catharines, Ontario, Peter is a graduate of Queen's University (Hon. B.A., history) and U. of T. (M.A., history) and, in law, a graduate of U. of T. (LL.B.) and Harvard (LL.M.). He taught contracts, restitution and legal history at Osgoode Hall Law School and then, in 1975, entered private practice with Torys LLP in Toronto, where he specialized in corporate, securities and financial institution law.

In 1986, Peter was seconded to the Department of Finance in Ottawa where he advised the Minister of Finance on regulatory reform and assisted in the drafting of the model statutes updating federal financial institution legislation. He was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1991.

Peter and his family moved to Victoria in 1997 and he began teaching in the University of Victoria faculty of law. He continues to consult to the financial services industry and serves on the boards of several financial institutions and the board of OLHI. Peter is the co-author of the prize-winning Law of Restitution. He is also active in community affairs and is currently Chair of the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria, Vice-President of the Victoria Hospice Foundation, and Past Chair of the Braefoot Community Association.